Two Break-Ins Here Last Week

In the early hours of Friday morning thieves entered the premises of Leeson Hardware and made off with two shotguns, a number of 22 rifles and ammunition, as well as a few pieces of luggage. Entry was made by smashing the glass in the front door.

Before, or after their entry, at the hardware store they apparently broke the lock on a gas pump at Stevens Service Station and filled their car with fuel.

The alarm went out and on Monday it was reported from Claresholm that the culprits had been apprehended by R.C.M.P. with the loot still in their possession. The barrels of the two shotguns were found to have been sawed off when the pair were picked up in a stolen car.

One of the men in custody is an escaped convict, who gained his freedom in a break from a Regina jail recently.

All Mail By Truck Starting August 30

Truck mail service will replace the C.P.R. mail service between Calgary and Edmonton, starting August 30, with the exception of limited baggage service on midnight trains 521 and 522 out of both cities.

This announcement was made last week by the Calgary director of postal services. The first trucks bearing mail will leave each city at 9 p.m. daily, including Sunday and will arrive at their destination at 5 a.m. This will mean that mail will arrive at Didsbury at 11 p.m. at night from the south and 3 a.m. from the north. Consequently mail will be sorted much earlier in the day than under the old system.

For some time trucks have been carrying mail during the daylight hours, and a portion was also being carried via rail. However, starting at the end of this month, all mail will be transported by road.

SATISFIED SPINSTER

An elderly spinster snorted whenever her friends suggested marriage. "Why should I want a husband?" she would ask in indignation. "I have a dog that growls, a parrot that swears, a fireplace that smokes and a cat that stays out all night!"

A dramatic picture of a robin, perched on a branch, looking down. A Dayton, Ohio, housewife, frantically circling the body of its bewitched mate, flew around trying to knock its dead mate down with a broom when the piece of string it had been carrying became entangled in a high wire. Tension wire 50 feet above the ground.

New C.P.R. Trains Go On Display Here, Aug. 19

The dome display is a preview of the train-continentals of 1955 when 15 full trains of such stainless steel sleepers will be in service on the Canadian Pacific. The RDC Dayliner is the new look for branch line operation.

At Didsbury the Dayliners will go on show while under their own power in a test to establish the schedule.

Each Dayliner seats 89 passengers and can go up to 85 miles an hour and get up to 44 miles an hour within one minute from a standing start. These RDCs carry their own power and are driven through torque converters.

Air conditioning, wide picture windows, foam rubber seats and bright cheerful interiors are among the travel refinements for coach passengers the Dayliners will demonstrate to the West in the showings between now and entry into service on a new fast schedule between the two large cities in Alberta the end of the month.

Two RDC cars will be used on the Edmonton-Calgary run together and the target is a 3½-hour schedule.

SHORN SHEEP:

OUR OLIVE FRIENDS will be glad to know that in future they may be spared the unpleasant and chilly experience of being shorn at their wool to keep warm. A new lightweight lining material for men's and women's clothes combines fabric and aluminum to give more than three times the insulating value of a similar weight of wool cloth.

Humans, too, will be glad if this hastens the end of heavy, bulky winter wear. The material can be dry-cleaned, dries well and is sufficiently porous to let the body "breathe". Just one more example of the way Canadian manufacturers are combining aluminum and imagination for better, easier living. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

Buying At Home!!

When large corporations do business in the smaller towns and villages of Alberta will spend part of their advertising appropriation in an endeavor to foster better relations and particularly to help benefit local business, there must be some reason for their effort. Such is the case of Calgary Power Limited and only last week they published an advertisement in this paper headed "Only Home Town Buying Makes Your Home Town Grow."

Calgary Power is looking ahead. If a town grows so does their business, and statisticians have proven that a community that takes the slogan "buy at home" seriously is the place that grows from a small town to a big town, benefitting everyone as it goes along.

"Spend your money where you earn it" would be a good slogan for everyone no matter where they live. If this slogan were seriously considered and adhered to we would have a much better chance of getting the extra facilities which are needed so much in the immediate area. You may pay a little more in your home town for quality goods but you will have the satisfaction of getting what you want at a fair price from a merchant who gives you quality goods or your money back.

There are too many people in Didsbury buying out of town — some of them business men — and unless these local concerns set an example for others in town to follow, they will surely feel the effects of their folly.

Good public relations are the makings of any business. Calgary Power Limited is advertising to maintain such a status — and their seasonal advertisement headed "Only Home Town Buying Makes Your Home Town Grow," will no doubt help to justify their place in our community.

Famous Last Words

A New Englander was visiting a friend in Texas and despite his distinct accent, no one asked him where he was from the whole week he was there.

"How come?" he asked his friend.
"Well," the friend explained, "in Texas they never ask you where you're from. They figure if you're not from Texas, they don't want to embarrass you."

Then there was the local shotsmith who came to the top of the ninth and made the proud report: "Well, I've still got a no-hitter going." Too bad he was playing golf!

BILLY GRAHAM OIL TOWN MOVIE TO BE SHOWN HERE

Oiltown, U.S.A., beautiful color, sound motion picture, and latest release from the Billy Graham's evangelistic crusade in Houston, Texas, last summer, and not only features the Graham team, but also such outstanding Christian motion picture artists as Colleen Townsend Evans, Paul Power, Georgia Lee, Robert Clarke, Cindy Walker, Incidental music is supplied by Andy Parker and the Plainsmen and the musical score was arranged by Ralph Carmichael. Dick Ross of Great Commission Films directed and produced the film. The plot revolves around a rich oil magnate, played by actor Paul Power, and his beautiful daughter, played by actress Colleen Townsend, whose wealth and social life have kept them far from the principles of Christianity. Their chance meeting with converts of the Graham crusade brings an unexpected and exciting train of events which go to make a dynamic and appealing religious motion picture.

Oiltown, U.S.A., is actually a sequel to the popular "Mr. Texas" film, another Billy Graham release which has been the means of over 85,000 persons turning to Christianity.

As a special feature of the evening a ten-minute newsreel of the first four weeks of the London Crusade at Harringway Arena will be shown. This showing is open to the public with no admission charge. A collection will be taken to defray expenses.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

That true happiness is to be found through understanding the spiritual laws which govern the universe, including man, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul." The spiritual nature of happiness is set forth in the following passage which will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (60:29-32): "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind; and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul. Higher enjoyments alone can satisfy the cravings of immortal man. We cannot circumscribe happiness within the limits of personal sense."

The prophet Isaiah's promise of peace and joy to those who spiritually understand God will be included in the readings from the Bible (Isaiah 55:12): "For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands."

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

There is an old saying that "Distance lends enchantment to the view." There are times, however, when some things would be much more enchanting to us if they were much closer. Our means of travel have improved wonderfully over the years. We move around at a pace that would have utterly astounded those who live in the days of horse-drawn buggies. Nevertheless, there are still some awkward features of travel — such as time and expense — that have to be considered.

The little town of Bonnyville, about 185 miles northeast of Edmonton, may seem infinitely remote to us. But for some it has some enchanting features that would be much more attractive if not so far away.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the U.C. have two homes, for boys and girls, located there. These are residential schools for the benefit of those who have difficulty, for one cause or another, in the care and education of children. Children in remote areas with no school available, or homeless youngsters, are helped wonderfully by such a school as this. Board, room and tuition are provided for only $25.00 a month, which is a board of $1.45-a-pound coffee, is a remarkable thing.

It is not simply the cheap rates but the Christian atmosphere of such a school that merits our wholehearted support. The W.M.S. throughout the area northeast of Edmonton, have had many such homes, two fine hospitals, and other institutions that have been a great blessing to hundreds of people.

I also think our hospital at Lamont, 45 miles from Edmonton, would be more attractive if it were closer to hand. Most of our prospective nurses go to Calgary, or Edmonton, for their training. The Archer Memorial Hospital at Lamont is our only United Church hospital which has a training school in connection with it. Its training ranks with the very best anywhere.

In fact, there are very few Protestant hospitals, operated under the auspices of any denomination, in the west. We have emphasized public ownership of hospitals, and schools, almost to the point where some misguided people think that the church has no business trying to operate schools or hospitals.

The following statement by the Hospitals Board is one that merits consideration: "Church hospitals are a living and effective demonstration of the Spirit of Christ. Although we recognize that the state has taken over to a large extent, both education and health services, we believe that the quality of Christian service both as an attitude and a rule of life is distinctive, that it ought to be preserved at all costs."

"And Jesus went about all Galilee teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people."

Why not, therefore, send our needy children to Bonnyville, and encourage our prospective nurses to take their training at Lamont. The closer the view, the more enchanting the prospect.

Can We Afford To "Pan" The U.S.

The most popular indoor sport these days is to "pan" the United States for some act, real or presumed, in the realms of world affairs. At the moment, the United States is strong enough to stand on her own feet, but that is in spite of her many hind but she should be standing behind her but are busy sniping at her from the rear.

If the free peoples of the world want to lose their freedom and become slaves to depraved Oriental godless philosophy, they should continue as they are... and this is pointedly directed to several commentators promoted by the C.B.C. Rather than precipitate a war the United States has made herself a laughing stock in the eyes of the Asians, whom the U.S. did much for. The United States and Britain have offered the Communists a system of co-existence, providing the Reds offer no further international aggression, but the Reds have scorned such a program and are already boasting of their next conquests.

The British have been very critical of U.S. policy, but we wonder what they will do when the Chinese Reds tear down on Hong Kong. Will there be a wall for U.S. military help. As for Formosa, Japan held this island since 1895, why all the fireworks on behalf of the Red Chinese, other than Chang Kai-Shek is sitting there with quite a strong army.

The U.S. fought a grim battle in the Pacific to safeguard her frontiers. She can hardly be expected to relinquish all the traits of her conquest when by so doing she surrenders her defence position in the Pacific.

The Grouch

Author: Guess Who?

Oh, you've met him in your travels. And you've seen him on the street. For he's always kicking gravel. And his temper's never sweet.

Yes, he grumbles at the weather. If it rains, he wants the sun. If the boys are full of gladness, he is sore cause he's got none. He finds fault with everybody. Makes a point to fume and fuss. If the victuals are not tasty, Or the house is in a muss.

Blames stores for having nothing On their shelves, that can be got. Or the price is just outrageous, Or the goods are lummy-not. Says the preacher is half crazy, That the church is full of gent. Who are hypocrites, or lazy. And were never penitents.

Cavils at the local paper. Grouches because it does not print All the gossip that he figures "Something wrong," so he hints.

He's an eyecore and a nuisance, Cause his gears are out of mesh. Wants an overhauling surely Just to make a start afresh. Get your eyes a pair of glasses, Cut out all the doleful strain. Brace up, take a new perspective. And you'll see the sun again.

Toad Flax: Many of you have heard me talking about toad flax in previous years. I find it necessary again to write about this bad weed.
This is, I believe, the most persistent and troublesome weed that we have to deal with. In comparison with other weeds, fortunately it has not reached the proportions of infestation as compared with wild oats or thistles but since it is so difficult to eradicate and the process of doing so is very costly, I maintain that toad flax is one weed that no one can afford to ignore or overlook.

Perhaps a description of the weed is in order for those who are not familiar with it. The flowers are a bright yellow, snap-dragon type of flower and in bloom from this time of the year until perhaps the middle of September. They will grow to an average of 2 to 2½ feet in height or sometimes higher. The flowers are attached directly to the main stem and the leaves are long and very slender, smooth and medium green in color.

The root system is very intense,
like that of couch grass. Toad flax will grow most anywhere — among stone piles on gravel ridges, among brush and of course on good ground.
It grows with such density that it will eventually crowd out native grass, couch grass, in fact all other vegetation. 24-D will temporarily burn it down but will not kill it permanently. A soil sterilant is the only permanent cure but is very costly to use. Keep a sharp look out for toad flax.

It is much easier to deal with a small patch than to let it grow into a large one before you try to destroy it. Sodium Chlorate can be obtained from the municipal office to treat toad flax. If you have a toad flax problem give us a call and we will try to give you good advice.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Perhaps we can write a line or two for our good home town paper.

Rev. Taylor is at Ouli Lake camp as one of its leaders this week. Mrs. Taylor and the kiddies are at home on the campus looking after things. Mrs. Taylor is doing Miss Eby's books for the college and conference while the former is in hospital. This is greatly appreciated.

Reuben Rateloff is finishing up Miss Eby's office this week. It will be cleaned and ready for the winter when she returns. A real contribution indeed. All have enjoyed having Reuben and his family on the campus.

Miss Joyce Burkholder, Reg. N., and graduate of the college with her B.S.L., has finished packing for Africa. Her boxes were sent off by the Bureesses. She will be leaving within a few weeks and we wish her every success in her new field of service.

Rev. Alvin Traub was given the honorary position of President Emeritus at a recent board of directors' meeting. He deserves this honor. Last week he again gave much of his time to the construction of Miss Eby's apartment along with the help of Mrs. Sam Eby. This will be a lovely place when completed.

Applications are again coming in for next winter's classes. We hope there will be many more.

Your correspondent is reclining quite comfortably on her hospital bed and will endeavor to get a few items of interest to do from week to week. Friends have been most kind during the past week.

CALGARY HERALD OFFERS NURSING SCHOLARSHIPS

For the second year two nursing scholarships, with a total value of $900, will be offered by The Calgary Herald to girls graduating from Southern Alberta high schools.

Last year the first of the annual scholarship awards for nursing were won by Kathleen Halpen and Adelaide Susanne Jacques, both of Calgary. Miss Halpen is in training at the Calgary General hospital and Miss Jacques at the Holy Cross.

Each scholarship is valued at $450 and they are paid in instalments beginning at each of the three training years in the following manner: $200 at the time of enrollment; $100 at the beginning of the second year, provided the student has had a satisfactory first year; and $150 at the start of the third year, provided the second year has also been satisfactory.

Students attending high school in the area south of a line running from Rocky Mountain House east to Red Deer, and Coronation, are eligible for the scholarship.

Those wishing to train in the Holy Cross hospital should send applications to the Holy Cross School of Nursing and those wishing to take training at the Calgary General should send applications to the School of Nursing there.

All applications must be in by September 1.

Applications should include the name, age and address of the student as well as the name of the high school principal in the high school attended.

Applicants must have attained senior matriculation with 100 credits; they must be accepted by one of the two Calgary schools of nursing to be eligible for the award; and they must meet the standards of scholarship committee.

The character and need of the applicants will also be factors taken into account in deciding the winners.

Grain Delivery Quotas Changed

The Canadian Wheat Board has announced a new system of grain delivery quotas to be used in the coming crop year which will become effective at a date yet to be announced. The initial quota, applicable to all producers, regardless of their seeded acreage, will be the equivalent of 100 units, with a unit representing three bushels of wheat, or eight bushels of oats, or five bushels of barley, or five bushels of rye. Once the system goes into effect producers will be entitled to deliver any of these grains or any combination thereof as calculated on the unit basis. For example, a farmer might exceed his 100 units as follows:

90 bushels wheat equals 30 units
200 bushels barley equals 40 units
160 bushels oats equals 20 units
50 bushels rye equals 10 units

Total 100 units

This change in policy from the previous year takes into consideration the price relationship between the various grains, giving all producers, regardless of their acreage, about the same initial cash return. For 300 bushels of wheat of 3 Northern grade the cash return to an Alberta farmer would be about $345.

Flax and durum wheat will not be subject to delivery quotas during the 1954-55 crop year.

Until the quotas become effective on a date yet to be announced by the Wheat Board, producers may deliver up to 1,000 bushels of either oats or barley or a combination of these two grains providing space in country elevators is available. This move was made to insure immediate delivery of a sufficient quantity of these grains to meet market requirements. Deliveries made under this special provision will not apply on the 1954-55 quotas. This authorization will be subject to cancellation at about the same initial cash return. The same board's initial quota policy becomes effective.

Until the initial delivery quotas become effective, producers may be permitted to deliver any wheat other than durum.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Ramsay and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith Sr. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Atkinson on Saturday. The former's son, Brent, returned home with them after spending the past two weeks with his aunt and uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lundell and daughter Christine of Creston, B.C., visited in the Neapolis district last Tuesday afternoon. The former was a former teacher of Neapolis school.

Anyone wishing to send old woolens are reminded that the date has been extended a few days. They are to be left with Mrs. Ed Blain or Mrs. James Worrall.

The regular Mountain View W.I. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. David Pratt on Wednesday, August 18th.

WHEAT EXPORT VALUE DROPS

The value of Canadian wheat exports in the first six months of 1954 was $105 million less than exports in the same period last year. This represented a drop of nearly 40 per cent in the value of export sales, part of which was due to lower prices but mostly as a result of smaller export demand.

Figures showing export of wheat from Canada in the 1953-54 crop year are not yet available but they will be in the neighborhood of 250 million bushels compared with 385 million bushels in 1952-53.
